

Weekly Spotlight

Mission Partner Update - Fighting Human Trafficking

Artist, Missionary and Mission Partner Robin Haines Merrill is here today! Trinity Wellsprings Church has supported Robin and her husband Mark for 31 years. Lives can be saved by facing atrocities like human trafficking head on with the love of God and the power of the Holy Spirit. You may wonder, what can I do in the face of a problem as monumental as human trafficking? There is a simple step to confront human trafficking and oppression, talk about basic spiritual remedies. These steps can be applied by anyone in their walk with Christ, on a daily basis.

Robin has also brought products from her Mission Gifts Fair Trade Store. These organic and recycled products were made by those rescued from poverty and the sex industry from around the world. It's a great opportunity to stock up on Christmas gifts. This will be your last chance to buy directly from Robin. After 27 years, Mission Gifts Fair Trade Store will sell their products only online. Trinity has been a part of this economic development project for years.

Missionary Robin Merrill continues to do outreach, education and advocacy for prostitution issues, human trafficking, and other social justice concerns in Florida and around the world. The Upper Room Art Gallery in Fort Lauderdale is used for Bible studies, meetings, and in general as a "holy place".

If you are interested in learning more about what she has to share, join her today in the Sanctuary lobby between services.