The Theology of Volunteering

Submitted by Dr. Chuck Neder, Transitional Pastor

These women were helping to support them out of their own wealth.

Luke 8:3b

Jesus, the head of our church, had a ministry that was important, demanding and tiring. He needed help in getting the things done that would allow the ministry to go forward. Three women, Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Susanna volunteered to help. They took care of all the details and as we know His ministry flourished. There were other men and women who volunteered to walk with Jesus and do the things that needed to be done, allowing him to minister to the multitudes.

You say “well if Jesus asked, I would volunteer.” Well Jesus is the head of the church (I Corinthians 12) and we (Trinity Wellsprings Church) are part of that church. We need volunteers to do so many things, like the first century church, so that the life changing, loving message of Jesus may be heard by all. As we are told in I Corinthians, many of these are jobs that do not get noticed, but as the Bible says, have the most honor.

The Bible is clear, volunteers, with a cheerful heart, are given the privilege of serving in a variety of very important ways in the life of the church. The blessing will be yours!
