Genesis 22

Isaac asks, “Father we have the fire and we have the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?”
Abraham responds, “God Himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering my son.”

“Throughout the Old Testament period, the blood of lambs stained Israel’s altars, as part of the elaborate ritual that showed the seriousness with which God took sin, as well as the way in which He was to deal with it.”

Psalm 51:1-2, 7

Be gracious to me O God, according to thy lovingkindness. According to the greatness of thy compassion, blot out my transgression. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. Purify me with hyssop and I shall be clean. Wash me and I shall be whiter than snow.

Isaiah 53:7-8

He was oppressed and He was afflicted. Yet He did not open his mouth. Like a lamb led to slaughter, and like a sheep that is silent before its shearers, so he did not open his mouth. By oppression and judgement, he was taken away. He was cut off out of the land of the living. For the transgression of my people to whom the stroke was due.

John 1:29

*Behold the Lamb of God who takes away
the sins of the world.*
